

Williams, Charlop, Rapp Elected To W.N.T.C. Posts For This Year

The new president of WNTC is Ken Williams from Granville. Ken is a junior B.A. majoring in accounting. He was business manager of the station last year, a member of Clarkson Society of Accountants, and a counselor in the dorms for two years. He is a member of Theta Chi Fraternity, the American Marketing Association and is now pledging Pi Delta Epsilon.

The station manager is Dave Rapp, who hails from Troy. Dave is a junior I.D. and has participated in the Industrial Distribution Society, the Society for the Advancement of Management, the Drill Team, and the Lacrosse Club. He also is now pledging Pi Delta Epsilon and is a representative from Theta Chi Fraternity to the Interfraternity Council.

The business manager is Steve Charlop, from the Bronx. Steve entered Clarkson in the fall of 1955 as a B.A. majoring in accounting. He devoted his freshman year to academic achievement plus working on the ice carnival decorations committee. In his sophomore year he pledged Omicron Phi Omicron, joined the staff of WNTC as an announcer, and joined the Clarkson Society of Accountants. In his junior year he joined the Society for the Advancement of Management and the American Marketing Association. Steve has been on the Dean's List five consecutive semesters.

Keith Mantell, a freshman chemical engineer is the sales manager. Keith has participated in the Clarkson Glee Club, a weekly radio show and is a member of the American Chemical Society as well as being chaplain of Phi Delta.

The director of engineering for the following year is George Haus. George is a junior electrical engineer from Lynbrook. He was director of engineering last year. He is a member of Zeta Nu Fraternity and is pledging Pi Delta Epsilon.

Mary Lou Misner is the secretary for the executive board. Mary Lou is a Potsdam State sophomore who is majoring in general education. During the past two years with the campus station, she has served as both an announcer and as a record librarian. Mary Lou has been active in the Presbyterian College Fellowship, Association of Childhood Education, Art Association, the Racquette, and the Dance and Decoration Committees for Ice Carnival.

Lee Ross is the director of programming, and hails from Port Jervis. Lee is a junior electrical engineer and a member of Theta Chi Fraternity. This is Lee's third year on WNTC. Last year he was director of announcers.

(See WNTC, page 3)

W.N.T.C.

(Continued from page 1)

Art Sisca is the director of personnel. Entering as a freshman this year, he has worked as an announcer on WNTC since it opened in the fall. Besides this, Art was on the reception committee for the Ice Carnival and the educational committee of the Lewis House. He is presently engaged in the organization of Delta Kappa Tau, a new fellowship that is now in the process of becoming a recognized fraternity.

The new director of announcers is Elwyn Parker, a freshman business administration student majoring in industrial management. He hails from Corinth. Elwyn is a Theta Chi pledge and a member of Clarkson Glee Club. He is also rushing Alpha Kappa Psi, a business fraternity.

John Minki has been reelected director of control room operators. John is from Tenofly, N. J. He is vice-president of the Amateur Radio Club. After graduating from high school he served in the Army as a radio operator.

Barbara Eddy, a sophomore at Potsdam State, is the new record librarian. At the present time she is pledging Zeta Gamma Sigma. Her other activities have included working on the Freshman Show and the skating committee for the Ice Carnival.

Chuck Shapiro, a sophomore from Albany, is the new director of publicity. He is an announcer and control room operator at WNTC. His activities at Clarkson include Pershing Rifles, Freshman Drill Team, and pledging Pi Kappa Phi and Alpha Kappa Psi.